Dear Mr. Adam Bereki:

Thank you for your correspondence to the Office of the Attorney General.

While we appreciate the time and effort it has taken to contact our office, we are unable to assist you. The role of the Attorney General is to represent the People of California, collectively, in civil and criminal matters before trial courts, appellate courts, and the supreme courts of California and the United States. However, the Attorney General is prohibited by law from representing private individuals or providing legal advice, legal research or legal analysis to private individuals under any circumstances. As a result, the Attorney General cannot represent you in your private litigation or intercede on your behalf.

Therefore, we suggest that you consult with a private attorney to determine any civil remedies that may be available to you. An attorney would directly represent your interests and is the one whose advice would be most helpful to you.

Your complaint about the judge(s) involved in this case should be directed to the Commission on Judicial Performance. The Commission has exclusive jurisdiction over complaints against judges. You may contact the Commission as follows:

Commission on Judicial Performance

Telephone: (415) 557-1200
Fax: (415) 557-1266
